

THIS IS EVERS DAY AT P.C.O. GROUNDS

NEWS OF ALL BRANCHES OF SPORT

11 AMERICANS AFTER ENGLISH GOLF TITLE

MAJOR LEAGUE RECORDS

Compiled by Expert George L. Moreland.

Table with columns for League, Team, Games, Wins, Losses, etc. Includes American League and National League records.

Golfers Who Carry Uncle Sam's Hopes In Tourney for English Championship

Stars of England, Germany, France, Australia and Canada Make Competition an Event of International Importance.

The international battle for the English amateur golf championship, perhaps the biggest and most important golf event of the decade, starts a week from Monday.

Players from France, Australia, Canada and the United States will be among the competitors and the winner will have just claim to the title of the world's greatest amateur golfer.

Plays for Coming Week

John Drew and Ethel Barrymore to appear in Sardou's "A Scrap of Paper"—Mask and Wig Club Will Give "The Royal Arms," a Musical Piece.

JOHN DREW and Ethel Barrymore will begin a brief engagement at the Empire Theatre on Monday evening in Sardou's well-known comedy, "A Scrap of Paper."

At Wallack's on next Saturday afternoon and evening the Mask and Wig Club of the University of Pennsylvania will present a musical comedy called "The Royal Arms."

A public auction sale of seats for the Lamb's All-Star Gambol at the Metropolitan Opera House on Friday evening, May 22, will be held at the Hudson Theatre on Tuesday afternoon, beginning at 3:30.

At the Academy of Music beginning Monday afternoon Marguerite Clark will appear with the stock company in "Merely Mary Ann."

win George, comedy juggler; the Elley Sisters, roller skaters; Rich and Galvin and others.

WITH THE "MOVIES."

The new Grand Theatre in Forty-second street, west of Broadway, will continue to present George Kleine's elaborate photo-drama "Antony and Cleopatra."

The attraction at the Strand will be Conan Doyle's "The House of Temperley," a dramatic version of his novel "Honey Stone."

A new feature of Webb's Electrical Pictures at the Fulton Theatre will be De Wolf Hopper reciting "Casey at the Bat."

The New York Theatre will enter upon a new policy on Sunday by making a daily change of programme.

The present popular bill at the Vignette Theatre will be retained, "The Battle of Terroren" and "The Life of General Villa" will be shown at the Lyric Theatre beginning this afternoon.

The plans of the West End Theatre came to a sudden change to-day when it was decided to close the season of the Coran Payton Stock Company tonight.

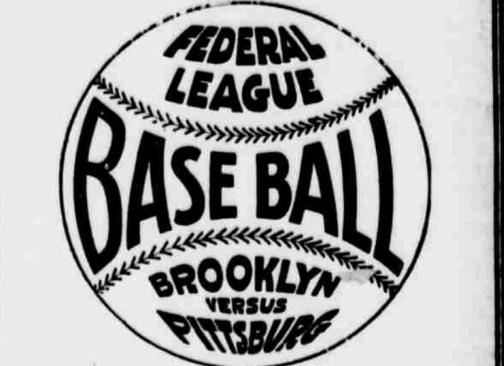

At Keith's will be Gertrude Hoffman and her Big Revue, Bertha Creighton and company in "Our Husband," Bertie Herron and Bonnie Gaylord, Ed.

Augustus Pitou, who grew wealthy in his able management of those two sweet singing Irish romances of comedians, Billy Scanlan and Chauncey O'Leary, has decided to take things easy for the rest of his life.

Mr. Pitou owned the original manuscript of the great hit, "Shane-na-Lawn," which had played to more than $200,000 when Scanlan was at his best.

"MY MOLLY O' TO LIVE AGAIN." Billy Scanlan's Famed Songs to Be Heard in "Shane-na-Lawn."

OPENING GAME

MONDAY, MAY 11 Washington Park, Brooklyn Band Concert 2:30 Flag Raising 3:00 GAME 3:30 Tickets on sale for Reserved and Box Seats at ABRAHAM & STRAUS In A. D. MATTHEWS' SONS, INC., Brooklyn TYSON & CO. And all other leading Ticket Offices in Manhattan at Box Office Prices.

George Topson Association Wins Evening World Trophy

Championship Won on Last Night of Headpin Tourney, With a Total of 513. The Evening World headpin tourney is ended. Last night's rolling closed the record breaking meet.

Herreshoff Sprains Ankle

LONDON, May 9.—It became known today that Fred Herreshoff had sprained his ankle, and it is doubtful if he will be able to take part in the English amateur championship.

Advertisement for Hippodrome, Empire, and other theatres, including showtimes and ticket information.

Advertisement for Cascarets, a candy cathartic, with text: "CASCARETS" IF COSTIVE, BILIOUS, HEADACHY AND UPSET—DIME A BOX.

Sunday World Wants Work Wonders to-day.